AsiaBSDCon 2009

AsiaBSDCon 2009 Call for Papers

AsiaBSDCon is a technical conference for users and developers on BSD based systems. AsiaBSDCon 2009 is the 4th international BSD conference in the Asian region and will be held in Tokyo, Japan, in March of 2009. This conference is for anyone developing, deploying and using systems based on FreeBSD, NetBSD, OpenBSD, DragonFlyBSD, Darwin, and MacOS X.

Prospective authors are invited to submit papers, presentations, and tutorials to ensure that the latest developments in our open source community are shared with the widest possible audience. Also, if you are interested in organizing a meeting in the first 2 days, please contact us.

Conference Days

The conference has 4 days; March 12th and 13th are tutorial and meeting day, and March 14th and 15th are for the paper session. Lunch and dinner in the last 2 days are included in the registration fee.

Author Schedule

15 December 2008
    Extended abstracts for papers and presentations acceptance ends.
24 December 2008
    Authors and presenters notified by the program committee.
31 January 2009
